

Acknowledgements

- ❑ Associate Professor Norm Hall from the Centre for Fish and Fisheries Research (Murdoch University) for his extensive editorial comments on the Draft Audit Report and constructive suggestions for its improvement.
- ❑ Associate Professor Malcolm Haddon from the Tasmanian Aquaculture and Fisheries Institute (University of Tasmania) for discussing assessment methodology in prawn fisheries and providing editorial comments on the Draft Audit Report.
- ❑ The Queensland Department of Primary Industries for its advice and assistance in preparing the Audit report and in particular:
  - the staff of the Fisheries Management Division of the Queensland Fisheries Service for clarifying the details of the revised Trawl Plan and providing an annual data report on the fishery – Mrs Bev Tyrer, Dr Brigid Kerrigan, Mr Mark Lightowler, Mr Andrew Thwaites and Mr Wez Norris;
  - the staff of the Sustainable Fisheries Section of the Queensland Fisheries Service for discussing the ecological assessment of the East Coast Trawl Fishery under the Commonwealth Guidelines – Mr Col Bishop, Dr Malcolm Dunning, Mr Brad Zeller and Mr Lew Williams;
  - the staff at the Southern Fisheries Centre (Deception Bay, Queensland) for advice on the East Coast Trawl Fishery research and stock assessment processes - Mr Mike Potter, Dr Tony Courtney, Mr Mike Dredge, Ms Julie Robins, Mr Simon Hoyle, Mr Norm Good and Mr Michael O'Neill; and
  - the staff at the Northern Fisheries Centre (Cairns, Queensland) for advice on the East Coast Trawl Fishery research and stock assessment processes – Dr Neil Gribble and Mr Clive Turnbull.
- ❑ The staff of the Sustainable Fisheries Section of Environment Australia for discussing legislation and the ecological assessment of fisheries and for reviewing the consistency of this Audit Report with Commonwealth Guidelines – Mr Mark Flanigan, Ms Kerrie Truelove, Ms Celeste Shootingstar and Ms Tori Wilkinson.
- ❑ The staff of the CSIRO Marine Division (Cleveland, Queensland) for explaining their research projects and inviting the Great Barrier Reef Marine Park Authority to participate at workshops - Dr Ian Poiner, Dr Burke Hill, Dr Ilona Stobutzki, Ms Cathy Dichmont, Dr Roland Pitcher and Mr Dave Brewer.
- ❑ The staff of the Australian Fisheries Management Authority for inviting the Great Barrier Reef Marine Park Authority to attend Northern Prawn Fishery workshops and meetings as an observer and for discussing their fishery's approach to the ecological assessment under the Commonwealth Guidelines – Ms Trysh Stone, Ms Katrina Maguire and Ms Mandy Goodspeed.