

TABLE OF CONTENTS

SUMMARY.....	1
--------------	---

CHAPTER 1: INTRODUCTION

Peter Saenger and Ian Dutton

The history of the John Brewer Reef Floating Hotel	3
Impact assessment, management and monitoring.....	7
Program goal and objectives of the Environmental Monitoring Program (EMP)	7

CHAPTER 2: BOMMIE CROPPING OVERVIEW

David Fisk

Introduction.....	9
Methods.....	9
Impacts of the bommie cropping.....	9
Survival of transplanted corals	11
Conclusions	11

CHAPTER 3: BIOLOGICAL MONITORING

Mark McCormick and Howard Choat

Introduction	13
Methods	13
Reconnaissance survey.....	16
Coral and other sessile fauna survey.....	16
Fish surveys.....	16
Conclusions.....	16
Benthic flora and fauna	16
Fish surveys.....	17

CHAPTER 4: WATER QUALITY: COMPLIANCE ASSESSMENT

Graham Jones

Introduction.....	21
Water quality monitoring objectives.....	22
Methods.....	22
Results and conclusions.....	23
Wastewater treatment.....	23
Lagoonal water quality	25
Effect of Trichodesmium on water quality	27
Monitoring program design.....	27

CHAPTER 5: SEDIMENTS: COMPLIANCE MONITORING

David McConchie

Introduction.....	29
Methods.....	29
Conclusions	29

CHAPTER 6: USER SURVEYS

Ian Dutton and Peter Valentine

Introduction.....	31
Methods.....	31
Stage 1: Description of previous use (Baseline).....	31
Stage 2: Survey after 12 months.....	31
Conclusions.....	32
Stage 1 surveys.....	32
Stage 2 surveys.....	32

CHAPTER 7: HYPOTHESIS TESTING

Peter Saenger

Introduction.....	35
The effects of bird droppings on lagoonal water quality.....	35
The effects of light and shading on pelagic organisms.....	36
The effects of underwater noise on fish populations.....	37
Dispersal of the brine plume.....	37

CHAPTER 8: REVIEW OF THE WORKSHOP

Claudia Baldwin

Introduction.....	39
Bommie cropping.....	39
Environmental Monitoring Program design.....	39
Biological monitoring.....	39
Water quality.....	40
Sediments.....	40
User surveys.....	40
Hypothesis testing.....	40
Summary of environmental impact and recommendations for future monitoring.....	40

CHAPTER 9: IMPLICATIONS FOR MANAGEMENT: A RETROSPECTIVE ANALYSIS

Peter Saenger and Ian Dutton

Introduction.....	43
Monitoring design.....	43
Monitoring program administration.....	44
Implications for similar projects.....	44
Conclusion.....	45

APPENDIX

A Workshop Program.....	48
B Workshop Participants.....	49
