

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Many people helped the author in the course of preparing this report. From the Great Barrier Reef Marine Park Authority I would like to thank Dr David Lawrence for his cheerful guidance in overseeing the project, Ross Williams for his valuable perspective on indigenous issue and Stephen Sparkes and Dominique Benzaken for their comments on an earlier draft. Professor G. Kelleher, the Chairman of the Authority was generous in giving his time to discuss many of the themes in the Report. Outside the Authority I would like to thank Dr Dermot Smyth for spending some time with me discussing indigenous issues relating to marine management. Dr Elspeth Young from the Geography and Oceanography Department and University College, ADFA was very helpful in allowing me to examine here collection of material on Aboriginal involvement in national parks. Dr Bob Johannes from CSIRO provide advice and material on customary marine tenure in the South Pacific. I would also like to thank Sue Moss for valuable research assistance and Bev Lincoln for preparing the final manuscript. Bev Cooper from Unisearch was also helpful in project management. Finally I would like to thank the three referees of the report for their comments.

PUBLICATION NOTE

Chapter 4 of this report draws heavily on an opinion on offshore native title written by Dr Richard Cullen, acting head, Department of Professional Legal Education, City Polytechnic of Hong Kong. Parts of this chapter use wording very closely based on Dr Cullen's original opinion.
